

The Development and Education Subcommittee of the Privacy Committee of the Federal CIO Council and The Information Resources Management College (IRMC), National Defense University

INVITE FEDERAL PRIVACY PROFESSIONALS TO PARTICIPATE IN A LAB DEMONSTRATION OF:

EVERYTHING YOU WANT TO KNOW ABOUT SECURITY

(BUT WERE AFRAID TO ASK YOUR CIO)

*Featuring hands-on demonstrations and plain English discussions of topics such as:
vulnerabilities of Radio Frequency Identification (RFID) chips on cards and passports;
safeguarding and deleting data; social media; social engineering; and other topics.*

AND...You can ASK QUESTIONS!

TWO sessions will be offered at the IRMC (Fort McNair)*

Tuesday August 11th

9-11 am & 1-3 pm

The sessions are Free and seats are Limited. To register, please contact PrivacyDivision@state.gov (include your name, agency and session preference)

Detailed directions to IRMC, Fort McNair, 300 -5th Avenue SW, Building 62,DC, http://www.ndu.edu/irmc/abt_dir.htm*